

HARRISON

ROOF CONVERSION.

This project involved the refurbishment of a single storey bungalow into a 2 and a half storey house using room in roof construction.

SIP Build designed a new first floor level with SIP roof and internal walls.

Glulam ridge and purlins were used to accommodate a roof with overall span of 10m.